Information message

DEAR COLLEAGUES!

We invite You to take part in the XXIX Scientific-technical conference with participation of foreign scientists «REAGENT–2015». The conference will be held from September, 28th till October, 1st, 2015 in Novosibirsk Akademgorodok.

The purpose of the conference is the acquaintance with the achievements of the chemists working in the field of elaboration of new chemical products and innovative small-capacity chemical technologies. The scientific program of the conference includes the fundamental and applied aspects of development of the high technology chemical materials and products.

Leading scientists from Russia and CIS states, representatives of chemical enterprises and companies will attend the conference.

The program of the conference will consist from plenary and key lectures, oral talks, poster session and also discussion «Problems of small-capacity chemistry and their solutions».

Working language of the conference is Russian.

The address of the conference web-site is:
web.nioch.nsc.ru/reagent2015/

Participants will receive the book of the abstracts and the program of conference at registration. As a result of the conference a book of conference proceedings indexing by Russian Index Scientific Citation is supposed to be published.
